Hidden kitchens

One of the big trends out of Europe is the focus on minimisation and the popularity of concealing interiors.

This trend sees kitchens and all their contents majestically disappear behind sliding doors, out of sight.

Entire kitchens can be hidden behind sliding doors and concealed into the wall, creating almost an entirely new space.

Pantries, wall ovens and fridges all disappear behind massive doors, just like a wardrobe for your kitchen.

It presents the most elegant way to hide your essential kitchen utensils and equipment.

The concept can easily be adapted in other parts of the house like in the garage with tuck-away storage.
